

HEARD IN THE HIVE

by the Bee

The wonderful warm and clear weather we have had this week has been more than welcome to those who like to entertain out of doors. Nothing is more pleasant than a party on a terrace or in a garden; such was yesterday evening's affair when the first dinner dance of the season, in aid of Fatima Hostel, was held at Villa Grech Mifsud, Mosta.

This splendid villa, with Degiorgio, Mr. John Mizzi, its beautiful big gardens is one of the loveliest on the Island. It presented a gay and happy spectacle. Dinner tables were set up in the reception rooms and in the spacious patio where young ladies served the guests to a delicious dinner. The band of the U.S. 6th Fleet and "The Trifids" pop group provided the dance music throughout the evening.

'Europe Day' Reception

The Malta Council of the European Movement were hosts at a reception they gave last Thursday at the Royal University to mark Europe Day. The reception was preceded by a symposium in the University Theatre.

of Sliema at St. Ignatius' Church, Sliema. Father E. Borg Olivier officiated and celebrated Nuptial Mass.

The bride was given away by her father and looked most attractive in a white gown and coat of nylon organza. Her hair was studded with fresh orange blossom with a long veil falling from the back of the head. She carried a spray of orange blossom.

Miss Carmen Xuereb, sister of the bride, and Miss Virginia Borg, cousin of the bride, were in attendance together with the groom's niece, Anne Agius as trainbearer.

Mr. Justice V.R. Sammut, B.A., LL.D., and Professor J.J. Mangion, B. Sc., M.D., F.D.S., R.C.S. (Eng.) were the witnesses while Dr. G. Xuereb carried out the duties of bestman.

A large reception was held after the ceremony in the gardens of Palazzo Parisio, Naxxar. On leaving for the honeymoon, which is being spent on the Continent and in the U.K., the bride wore a grey flowered dress under a pink coat, with a pink hat and navy blue accessories.

Cocktail Party

On Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Marcel Bianchi gave a cocktail party at their lovely home in Msierah. Mrs. Bianchi, looking very chic in a rose champagne crystal beaded top over a matching full length skirt was a charming hostess to about 160 guests. Helping Dr. and Mrs. Bianchi look after their many friends, were their three children, Louis, Madeleine and Veronica.

Carnations and roses from the garden enhanced the modern and attractive decor of the reception rooms. The mild evening enabled the guests to wander out into the garden and onto the terrace which gives a wonderful view of the harbour.

Among the guests present were His Excellency the Governor General, Dr. A. Dazzi, Sir Anthony and Lady Mamo, Rear Admiral and Mrs. G. Giometti, Judge and Mrs. W. Harding, Professor and Mrs. J. Aquilina, Mrs. J.D. Frost, Major and Mrs. L.
