

THE MALTA UNION OF PHARMACISTS held its annual dinner at the Corinthia Palace Hotel last Sunday. About 80 members and their wives attended the dinner, at the end of which Mr. Eric Mizzi, the Union's President, made a short speech. The guests of honour were the Minister of Labour, Employment and Welfare, Dr. J. Cassar, and Mrs. Cassar. Seated at the top table (right) are (from left) Mr. Ferdinand Felice, Mrs. J.P. Civil Servants celebrate

AS 1973 nears its end, nearly every organisation provides an occasion for its members to get together to celebrate past achievements and hope for a more prosperous New Year. Over 250 members of the Malta Branch of the Institution of Professional Civil Servants met at the Corinthia Palace Hotel with this in mind, on the evening of Friday, December 21.

The occasion was the Branch annual dinner-dance for members, their families and guests. The organisation was in the capable hands of Mr. George Mallia (the Chairman) and his Social Sub-committee, with Mr. J. Debono and Mr. L. Fsadni as members. All present had nothing but praise for the work put in by the organisers.

Guests of honour included Mr. E. Ploughman (Defence Civilian Administrative Officer) and Mrs. Ploughman, Mr. R. Treemaine (Civil Secretary to Flag Officer — Malta) and Mrs. Treemaine; and Mr. F. Baldwin D.F.C. (Civil Administrative Officer — R.A.F.) and Mrs. Baldwin.

The spirit of Christmas was most evident during the dinner-dance, but this was made even more tangible through the raffles for prizes donated by various firms and the presentation of free perfumery — to the ladies, of course.
